

GUIDELINES FOR WRITERS

- 1) The Journal of Corporate Governance “the Journal” is a multidisciplinary peer reviewed journal, covering issues relating to Corporate Governance best practices.
- 2) The Editorial Board welcomes articles, which deal with topical issues arising from and related to Corporate Governance.
- 3) Articles should ordinarily be between 7,500 and 15,000 words. However, in exceptional circumstances, the Editorial Board will consider shorter or longer articles where they are of interest, insight and of exceptional merit.
- 4) Contributors are to provide a short abstract of the paper of not more than 300 words.
- 5) Articles should demonstrate methodological soundness.
- 6) Articles will be peer-reviewed for accuracy and relevance. Contributors are implored to thoroughly proof-read their article before submission
- 7) Preference will be given to articles, which break new ground on governance issues, provide in-depth analysis of current developments and focus on issues or matters of interest and guide to stakeholders, shareholders, board members, business people, etc.
- 8) The Editorial Board also welcomes letters, notes and comments, which will not ordinarily be considered as a full-length article.

- 9) Articles submitted should be original materials and should not have been published or be under consideration by any other publication at the same time. A letter accompanying an article should state this position.
- 10) Copyright in the articles published shall be assigned to the Society for Corporate Governance Nigeria Ltd/Gte. Any subsequent publication of an article published by the Journal will be with the written permission of the Society for Corporate Governance Nigeria Ltd/Gte.
- 11) Articles must not contain anything libellous or illegal and must not infringe upon anyone's copyright or other rights.
- 12) The Editorial Board does not allow any statements or comments about a person or organization that cannot be proved to be true and or may be considered damaging to their reputation and or legitimate interests.
- 13) Details of the Author's institutional affiliation, full address and other contact information should be submitted on a separate cover sheet, any acknowledgements should be included on the cover sheet, with a note of the exact length of the article (in word).
- 14) The Editorial Board is responsible for the selection and acceptance of articles. The Editorial Board may make necessary editorial changes which will not alter the meaning or sense of the article. However any substantial alteration will be referred to the author for approval before publication.
- 15) Dates, punctuations, spelling and style should conform to British English.
- 16) Footnotes should be numbered consecutively with Arabic numerals and should be as concise as possible. Endnotes will not be accepted.
- 17) The first footnote should be asterisked and used for affiliations and acknowledgements.

Citations and References (15 - 20)

- 18) Books: Author's full name, Title in italics (volume or edition, year of publication,) page number.
Example: ES Herman, Corporate Control, Corporate Power, (Cambridge, 1981) p.10.
- 19) Journal Articles: Author's full name, "Title in lower case" (year) volume Journal, page number of beginning of article at page number of quote.
- 20) Newspapers: Author's full name, "Title in lower case" (date of publication) Title of Newspaper, page number. Example: ES Herman, "Corporate Control, Corporate Power" (30th January, 2007) The Economist p.10.
- 21) Cases: Names of cases should be in italics wherever they appear. Citations should follow the form prescribed by the editors of the relevant law report.
- 22) All materials should be submitted as a word document by e-mail to:
publications@corpgovnigeria.org

Kindly circulate to friends and colleagues that might be interested in the Subject.

You may wish to contact us for articles already published in the Journal or more enquiries.

We look forward to receiving your submissions.

Editorial Board: Dr. Christopher Kolade, CON, (Founding President, Society for Corporate Governance Nigeria/Former Pro-Chancellor Pan-Atlantic University (Lagos Business School), Professor Pat Utomi, Mr. Charles Nwabulu, Member, SCGN and Mrs Chioma Mordi, Chief Operating Officer, SCGN
Professor Akin Ibidapo-Obe, Dean, Faculty of Law, University of Lagos, Professor Vincent Onyemah, Professor Of Sales/Marketing, Babson College and Professor Sunday Owolabi, Professor of Accounting, Babcock University, Ogun State

SOCIETY FOR CORPORATE GOVERNANCE NIGERIA

5B, Lawani Oduloye Road, Oniru, Victoria Island, Lagos.
08158390739, 07039672614, E: publications@corpgovnigeria.org

W: www.corpgovnigeria.org Page